

Lesson: Thinning seedling number can improve overall yield

1. Traditional practice is to sow 2-3 seeds per hole due to low germination

2. When two seedlings germinate at the same space, there is low yield

4. Overall yield is higher

3. Improved practice: after germination, remove extra plants