

Lesson: If the climate is becoming dryer, then shift from traditional crops such as maize or rice to drought tolerant crops such as finger millet, pearl millet, fava beans or lentils

1. Traditional practice may be to grow maize or rice but yields are low when rain is low

2. Select drought tolerant crops finger millet

fava bean

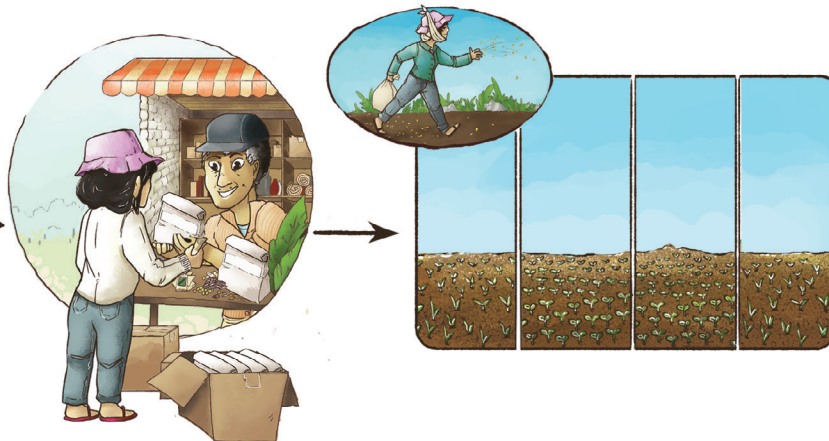

lentil

pearl millet

3. Purchase seed from vendor

4. Good yields with low rainfall

