

Lesson: Manure that is soaked in water can be sprayed onto crops to fight crop disease

1. Traditional practice: purchase pesticides and spray onto field

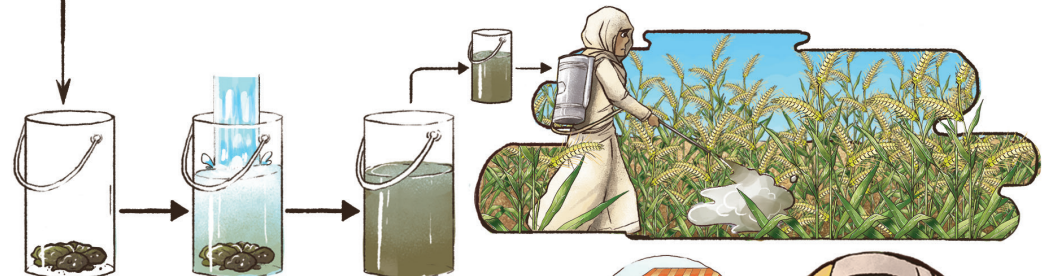

2. Alternative practice: collect manure

3. Dry manure in sun for many days to kill harmful microbes

4. Add manure to water

5. Spray manure liquid onto field. Healthy microbes in manure will fight microbes that damage crops.

6. Less need to purchase pesticides.