

Lesson: Manure soaked in water can be added to seeds before sowing to fight crop disease

1. Traditional practice: purchase pesticides and spray onto field

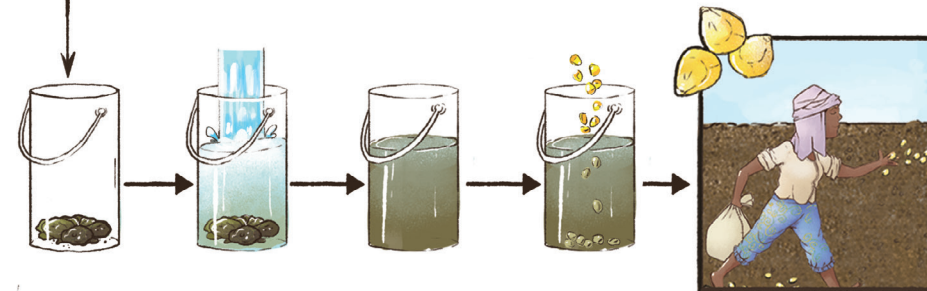

2. Alternative practice: collect manure

3. Dry manure in sun for many days to kill harmful microbes

4. Add manure to water

5. Soak seeds in the diluted manure. Healthy microbes in manure will fight microbes that damage crops.

6. Less need to purchase pesticides.